

.....BEWARE.....

Current Teen Drug and Social Trends

A FREE workshop for parents with children enrolled in LPPS

Would you know if your child is experimenting with drugs? Are you up to date on the current drug trends? How easily available are drugs to your child? Do you feel your child may be using drugs and just don't know what to do now? These questions and many more will be answered during this presentation.

Presenter:

Captain Jack West

Captain West has been in law enforcement since 1983. After teaching DARE for 6 years, he became aware of the need for another drug program to attack drug abuse from a different angle. That is when his speaking engagements took shape. After attending his presentation, you will be equipped with the knowledge and understanding needed to help keep kids safe and drug free.
